

never mind

sometimes some some sometimes

I find my mind
really the real me
not what I pretend too be liars and fakers
givers and takers
the real me really not what I pretend to be

Never mind piece of mind a think its too soon Im trying hard to unwind like the headphones wrapped around the underside of my bedpost ma hearts been broke since I was five that's how I was always telling lies my wisest guise was my disguise my wise guy guise was my demise fucking tragedy seems I was born to be the baddie unborn shoulda be that babies daddy heavy getting heavy mad wae cause I could drink a whole shelf then feel dead.sorry for myself Wake and bake and smoke a tree but well these herbs they don't appease but i forget this bit till am sick cause it just doesn't seem funny when ye run outa money pockets been picked cause you act like a prick

Truth hides but emptiness drags hollow pulled in wallowed till i wadded in this nothingness inebriated Swallowed gulped and guzzled troubled till am seeing double Illusions just like bubbles once you pop them your in trouble

sometimes some some sometimes

liars and fakers
givers and takers
